--THE CONTEMPORARY ASIAN AMERICAN TOPICS SEMINAR (CAATS) presents a special screening of "My Halmeoni's Brass Bowl" on Tues, April 23, 2024 during meeting/lunch period at 12:00 p.m. - 12:55 p.m. in I-107. The panel discussion and question and answer sessions will be chaired by award-winning filmmaker Jinyoung Lee, the founder of Now Production Films, (whose vision is to create impactful films that bridge gaps between cultures), and by celebrated director and Professor Emeritus of English at UH Manoa, Gary Pak '70. "My Halmeoni's Brass Bowl," an official selection for the 2023 Hawai'i International Film Festival, centers on the life of Lim Ok-Soon, an orphan who becomes a picture bride to a Korean immigrant plantation worker in Hawai‘i. (Lim Ok-Soon is Dr. Pak’s maternal grandmother). Please feel free to bring and eat your lunch during this screening. ALL ARE WELCOME! Questions? Please email ELEE@iolani.org

--FILL UP AT EMPTY BOWLS: If you’re interested in law, education, service, history, culture, food security, or climate change, come to Empty Bowls! Hawai‘i Land Trust (HILT) blends all of these in its approach to restoring and protecting ‘āina. The Maui Wildfires showed us the need to engage in these ways! Sign up here for Tuesday, 4/23, Meeting/Lunch Period. Your participation comes with a free lunch and handmade bowl!

SENIORS:--ALL SENIORS: WE NEED TO HEAR FROM YOU! COMPLETE THE IMUA 'IOLANI SURVEY BY MAY 1. Annually, the summer issue of Imua 'Iolani includes a list of where each senior is going for college. Let us know where you are going so that you can be included and our community can celebrate the start of your next chapter. If you do not wish to be a part of the college map, please indicate as such on the form. The summer issue also includes "senior bequeathments," or a list of items of sentimental or emotional value that seniors metaphorically bestow upon underclassmen. For example, "Grant Yoshida '23: To Tuloa and Kevin Tomisato, I bequeath my protein powder, so that you guys can gain more power next year." Think of your teammates, classmates, and dear friends who are underclassmen- what can you leave them with as you head on your way? Complete the survey here by May 1st.

GRS 7-11:--WANTED STUDENT LEADERS: Student Council Co-Chair Applications-
Do you want to help lead school-wide activities? Get involved in planning school events next year by applying to be a Student Council co-chair.
