EVERYONE:
--LIBRARY BOOKS: The final due date for library books is tomorrow, Friday, May 17. Please return all library books by Friday!

--SPRING GIFT OF MUSIC ORCHESTRA CONCERT: Six `Iolani Orchestras take the stage this Saturday (5/18) in Seto Hall at 4:30 PM. Over 175 Violinists, Violists, Cellists and Bassists (and percussionists) will perform music by Bach, Vivaldi, Tchaikovsky, Schubert, and more! There will be a Bake Sale (Celebration Concession) to help fund conservation efforts with planting more pernambuco trees (the wood used for orchestra bows) in Brazil. This event is FREE & we invite you to cheer for these talented musical athletes from our three Lower School orchestras and US Orchestra 1, 2, and 3! A Faculty/Staff Cameo will be featured in the Fireworks and Canon section. Clues - the initials are N.H. (Clue: Mr. N.H.)

--CHAMBER MUSIC RECITAL: Good things come in small packages! Please join us this Sun, May 19, 1:30 pm, Seto Hall for the 2nd semester Chamber Music Recital, presented by our dedicated and most advanced `Iolani Orchestra students. This FREE, conductor-less performance features 8 string quartets who have been working with professionals from the Hawaii Symphony Orchestra on advanced professional-level repertoire. The recital is expected to last about 90 minutes and no tickets/RSVP needed to attend.

--Iolani's TEDxYouth Event: Sat, 5/18 @ 2-3pm
TEDxYouth@IolaniSchool is an annual student-organized TED Talk event for the greater `Iolani community. This year's event will take place at 2:00 p.m., Saturday, May 18th in St Alban's Chapel. This year's event theme- “A Leap Forward” - will showcase the following student speakers:

• Qingqing Chen ’27 - Beyond the Lab : The Tech-Tactic Tales of Science, Tech, and Us
• Tiger Matsushita ’26 - Why I Choose to Be Single?
• Tata Li ’27 - What Finishing a Marathon Taught Me About Identity
• Erin Kuroda ’25 - Gender Gap and Gaslighting Amid Medical Treatments

If you would like to be a spectator, please RSVP via https://forms.gle/zkTykk1ZXfpDHs3j8 or visit our website: https://tedxiolani.com to obtain more information.
AP EXAMS: Students scheduled for AP exams are excused from attending classes during the exams. Students with two consecutive exams will be excused from classes between those two exams (excluding Friday afternoon classes). Students taking an 11:45 am exam are excused from morning classes on the day of the exam. After students have morning exam, students are excused the rest of the morning but are expected to attend classes after lunch that day. Otherwise, students are expected to attend classes and are still responsible for any work missed.

SUMMER VOLUNTEER IDEAS: Our C+CE Summer Community Engagement Opportunities list is here! This is a great starting point as you consider how you might make a difference and grow through new experiences this summer. Many of these opportunities are not ‘Iolani School programs; instead, they are chances to connect directly with community organizations. From outdoor work to remote (from-home) projects, we hope you find something you like. Please contact Ms. Sakuda (csakuda@iolani.org) or Ms. Kapu (kserrao@iolani.org) in the Community & Civic Engagement Office to let us know your plans; we are happy to help with questions as well.
